

Meeting Oct 2017

CHARNWOOD FOREST STEERING GROUP

John Howells and I were members of some of the working groups which worked up the lottery bid which has now been submitted. I have since met with representatives of the Heritage Lottery to field questions and 'sell' our project. An answer is expected in October and if successful the development stage will involve putting meat on the bones of the constituent projects

Roy Denney Representative