

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY
COMMITTEE – 5th November 2018

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT REVIEWING OFFICER

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

Purpose of report

1. The purpose of this report is to present the Annual Report of the Independent Reviewing Officer with regard to children in care and those subject to child protection planning. The report evaluates the extent to which Leicestershire County Council has fulfilled its responsibilities to these children for the period 1 April 2017 – 31 March 2018, including its corporate parenting function.

Policy Framework and Previous Decisions

2. The Independent Reviewing Officer (IRO) has a statutory role to ensure effective and improved care planning for children and young people, securing better outcomes, with their wishes and feelings being central and given full and due consideration. (IRO Handbook March 2010).
3. The effectiveness of the role has rightly been subject to scrutiny since its inception and the legal framework and statutory guidance was revised in 2010 to support a strengthened position. This is set out in the Care Planning, Placement and Case Review (England) Regulations 2010 (amended 2015) and the IRO Handbook 2010.
4. This Annual Report is a requirement of 'The IRO Handbook - Statutory guidance for Independent Reviewing Officers and Local Authorities on their functions in relation to case management and review of looked after children' (March 2010). The content and format follows the prescription set out in the guidance. The report will be available for scrutiny by the Corporate Parenting Board, be accessible as a public document and will be communicated to Leicestershire's children in care in a child and young person friendly version.
5. In relation to children subject to child protection planning, Working Together to Safeguard Children 2015 was the governing statutory guidance for this period of reporting.

Background

6. The appointment of an IRO is a legal requirement under S118 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002, their role being to protect children's interests throughout the care planning process, ensure their voice is heard and challenge the local authority where needed in order to achieve best outcomes.

7. The IRO Service in Leicestershire is hosted within the Safeguarding & Improvement Unit (SIU), part of Children's Social Care (CSC), which sits within the Children and Family Services (CFS). Whilst part of CSC, it remains independent of the line management of resources for children in care and the operational social work teams.
8. The role of the IRO is essential to the quality assurance and effectiveness of the looked after experience of children and young people, not just on an individual basis but collectively too, with IROs having a key part to play in monitoring the performance of the Local Authority as a Corporate Parent; drawing out themes for improvement and development and helping to drive forward change. In Leicestershire, IROs take the same quality assurance approach for children subject to child protection conferences and child protection plans as for children in care.
9. The report is an opportunity to pinpoint areas of good practice and those in need of development and improvement, providing information that can contribute to the strategic and continuous improvement plans of the local authority. It highlights emerging themes and trends, and details areas of work which the service has prioritised during the year, including progress on the areas of development that were identified from the 2017-18 IRO Service Story Board, as set out in Appendix F to the Annual Report.

Resource Implications

10. None.

Circulation under the Local Issues Alert Procedure

11. None.

Equalities and Human Rights Implications

12. These are addressed throughout the report as the aim is to improve standards and outcomes for all children and young people in care, including disabled children, young children and those from minority and harder to reach groups. The IRO Service has a diverse compliment of staff with good representation across gender, age, sexual orientation as well as ethnicity.
