Electoral Division activities

Main Activities during the past year:

I have been involved in the following during the past year.

- Highlighting the poor condition of footpaths.
- Trying to address the inadequate provision of public transport.
- Organising petitions and encouraging the public to be more community aware

Priorities for the immediate future are:

My priorities are

- The needs of the vulnerable to be raised.
- ensuring that the county budget is balanced and fair for all.
- Holding the executive to account.

Learning and development:

I have continued my personal development plan and attended various briefings relating to my role as a County Councillor

Other Matters:

I am hoping that the coalition government will realise its potential, and deliver its promise to de-centralise power to move to a more local level
