

Appendix B Current Performance

May 2022	Current offer Healthy Together Offer
Antenatal Data for April 2022	Parents are offered face to face visits with a SCPHN HV at home where mothers are identified with additional vulnerabilities. All parents are signposted to our digital offer which includes our websites, Health for under 5's and Health for Kids. These websites have a wealth of evidence-based information and advice on a variety of health and development related topics. Details of how parents can contact our Chat Health text messaging service are also provided, where parents can seek advice and support from Healthy Together staff via text. Leicestershire: 20% had contact The recovery of this contact is part of the recovery plan
10-14 days Data for April 2022	All parents are offered face to face home visits for the new birth reviews by a PHN HV. In addition, all parents are signposted to our digital offer Leicestershire: 98.34% received a home visit
6-8 weeks Data for April 2022	All parents are offered a face to face contact at home or in clinic, by a PHN HV or the contact can be delegated to an appropriately trained HCPN. All parents are signposted to our digital offer Leicestershire: 97.7% received this review
3-4 months	Digital offer
10-12 months Data for April 2022	Parents whose children have an additional referral allocation i.e. Child in Need or child on a protection plan are offered a face to face contact at home or in clinic, by a SCPHN HV. The contact can be delegated to an appropriately trained HCPN. Universal contacts can be undertaken by a SCPHN HV, HCPN or HCPP. This can be at home or in clinic. All parents are signposted to our digital offer which includes our websites, Health for under 5's and Health for Kids. These websites have a wealth of evidence-based information and advice on a variety of health and development related topics. We also provide details of how parents can contact our Chat Health text messaging service, where parents can seek advice and support from Healthy Together via text. Leicestershire: 30.1 % received this review

2-2.5-year review Data for April 2022	All parents are offered a either a face to face at home or in clinic or telephone contact, by a SCPHN HV or the contact can be delegated to an appropriately trained HCPN or HCPP. All parents are signposted to our digital offer Leicestershire: 76.4% had contact