

These Byelaws are made by the Leicestershire County Council under Section 41 of the Countryside Act 1968, with respect to those areas of land listed in Appendix B and any new areas to which the public have access.

Interpretation

1. In these byelaws:

“the Council” means Leicestershire County Council

“the land” means those Country Parks to which the public have access.

“adapted vehicle” means a vehicle, whether mechanically propelled or not

(a) the unladen weight of which does not exceed 150 kilograms,

(b) the width of which does not exceed 0.85 metres, and

(c) which has been constructed or adapted for use for the carriage of a person suffering from a disability and used solely by such a person.

“motorcycle” means

(a) a mechanically propelled vehicle, not being an adapted vehicle, with fewer than four wheels and the weight of which unladen does not exceed 410 kilograms.

(b) an electrically powered motor cycles (excluding an electrically assisted pedal cycle);

“cycle” means a bicycle, a tricycle, or an electrically assisted pedal cycle

“electrically assisted pedal cycle” means a cycle that has pedals that can be used to propel it and an electric motor with a maximum power output of 250 watts that should not be able to propel the cycle at a speed greater than 15.5mph and for which no driving licence is required.

“motor vehicle” means a mechanically propelled vehicle, not being an adapted vehicle or motor cycle, intended or adapted for use on roads;

“trailer” means a vehicle drawn by a motor vehicle, and includes a caravan.

Vehicles

2. (1) No person shall, without reasonable excuse, ride, drive or abandon a motor cycle, motor vehicle or any other mechanically propelled vehicle (other than a cycle, including electrically assisted pedal cycle) on the land, or bring or cause to be brought on to the land a motor cycle, motor vehicle, trailer or any other mechanically propelled vehicle (other than a cycle), except on any part of the land where there is a right of way for that class of vehicle.
- (2) If the Council has set apart a space on the land for use by vehicles of any class, this byelaw shall not prevent the riding or driving of those vehicles in the space so set apart or on a route, indicated by signs placed in conspicuous positions, between it and the entrance to the land.
- (3) This byelaw shall not extend to adapted vehicles
- (4) Motor vehicles shall only be parked or left in designated parking areas.
- (4) This byelaw shall not apply to emergency vehicles accessing the land in connection with the rendering of assistance to patrons.
