

N u m b e r	What used route for?	When first used the Path	Years using the Route	How frequently used the route	Any years when you did not use the route	Have you ever been prevented from using the route	Have you come across any physical structures	Have you ever asked or been	Have you ever seen any	Why did you use the path	Do you still use the path	How wide is the route you have used	Are you or have you ever	Did you meet or have	Were they using it on foot	Was there / is there a visible or	Wh at typ e of	Do you recall there being any stiles / gates / barriers across the path	Has anyone repaired or improved the surface or carried	Further Information	Willin g to speak at a Public
UE F1	Walking	The are photos of me in the field for my 10th birthday (August 1994) but I used it from an	22 years. I still use it now when I visit my	When living there, once a week	No. We used it less when there were cows in it, due to a fear	No. It's always been accessible.	No. The gate has never been locked	No	No	As a child for sledging. Now for going for a walk.	Yes	Dependin g on the season, between 2 - 3 ft.	No	Yes. Up to 30 people gaining access to the hill	Foot	Yes	Mud	Yes. Indicated on the map	No	I have so many memories of playing in the field and using the footpath to	Yes
UE F2	Walking , cycling	From around the age of one circa 1981	I used the route for around 28 years	Until 2009 approximately four times a month.	Yes. From 2009 I stopped using the path due to travelling	No	No	No	No	For accessing the wood, sledging and pleasure	No, I moved to Brsitol in 2010	A metre wide	No	Yes. Two or three people and dogs 50% of the	On foot	Yes	Grass	Yes. I think there may have been a stile when I was younger.	No	N/A attached photos	No
UE F3	Walking	1987	30 years	At least once a week - Saturday morning family walk	No	No	No. Most of the time there was a gate at the	No	No	For pleasure -walking, jogging, looking at the view	No, I moved away to Suffolk 3 years ago	It varied. Average 3ft	No	Yes. I would often meet other	On foot On foot	Yes	Grassy	Yes. The entrance has mostly had a barrier at the entrance - sometimes a stile, a gate unlocked	Yes. I seem to remember the grass		No
UE F4 - UE F5	Walking Walking	1987 About 1984	30 years More than 35 years	Minimum of once per week Perhaps once or twice each year 20 times a month	No Yes. Cannot recall the years. Used alternative	No No	No No	No No	No No	For pleasure For pleasure - to walk in Burleigh wood	No. Moved house to Suffolk over 3 yrs ago	1 metre Probably less than one	No No	Yes, often 1/3 time Yes. Cannot be specific -	On foot On foot	Yes Yes	Grass Grass and dry clay accordi	Unlocked gate No	Yes, grass was cut No Yes. Not sure who?		No Yes
UE F6 - UE F7	Walking Walking	Jun-07 2007	For six years 14 years	5x days a week. Monday - Thursday mornings, Saturday	No No even inbetween having a dog I still went out	No No. No never been asked to stop using the area	No No. Theres a main	No No. Never spoken to	No No. No signs up	Walking dog/pleasure Pleasure, dog walking - safe environment to let my dog off. I link it onto Burleigh woods	No Yes. All the while	1 metre The path varies from	No No	Yes, every time I used path Yes most morning	Foot	Yes Yes, a circular route which	Grass/muddy earth Grass-mud	No Yes x 3 gates. Leading from the roads at Leconfield. A second gate is off the road at	No. Not on the path (only at the gate from a builder	I like using this area as it is safe for my dog when off the lead. I link it on to Burleigh	Yes Yes
UE F8	Walking	Jun-81	40 years	In the 1980's and 1990's when our children were small, usually once a	No	No. Never. Although in the 80's cows grazed on the field. Access was never	No. When we first used the path in 1981	No	No	Pleasure, introducing our children to nature in the field and wood beyond. For regular exercise and sledging in	Yes. I try for seven days a week at about 8am	Varies at different times of the year denendin	No	Yes. I usually walk the path around	On foot	Yes. Very clearly defined for the	Grass and soil	Yes. As indicated on the attached map where the present gate stands was a stile. We assumed gates	No. Grass has in the past been cut once or twice a year	Please refer to page showing aerial Google Earth maps from 1999 to 2019	Yes
UE F9	Walking	1981	40	Usually about once a month but in the summer more likely to be at	No although on occasions in	No never	No	No	No	Pleasure and an area for our children to play	Yes	From 2ft to 5ft	No	Frequently , about half the occasions usually	Foot	Yes, visible for many years	Grass (shorte nd) or soil	The gate has been replaced but access has never been restricted. Many years ago there was a stile	No, path has been fromed by frequesnt use by	Path has been used for many years to give access to the permissive path	Yes

UE F1 0	Walking	1971/1972 April	30 years	We did use this route about once a	Yes, latterly we could n't	No	No	No	No	Mainly to visit Burleigh Wood to see the bluebells, with our children and then our grandchildren	No, age + some infirmity has put an end to this	Approx 3 feet	No	Yes, half the times	On foot	Yes	Grass or mud	No	No		No
UE F1 1	Walking	Sometime after April 1982 when we moved here. There were cows in the field at that	Occasionally	Occasionally	Probably not every year but regularly	No	No	No	No	Walking and dog walking	Yes, I have used it during lockdown	Width varies but path is easily followed	No	Yes, I see people regularly using the path from	On foot - often with dogs	Yes. I seem to remember that the	Grass	Yes, style next to the original wooden gate at the entrance and	Wooden gate was replaced by a		No
UE F1 2	Walking	Sometime after April 1982 when we moved into our current home	Occasionally since that date	Occasionally	Yes. Not used it every year	No	No	No	No	Walking for pleasure and dog walking	Yes. More frequently as a result of pandemic	Well marked by usage. 1 to 2 yards	No	Yes. Can be seen from our garden and	On foot; during snow times -	Yes	Grass	Yes. There was a style next to the	Yes. The original woode	Yes. However, would prefer
UE F1 3	Walking	1993 (then access from Leconfield Rd was a railfence)	28 years	1993-2003 once a month. 2004-2017 twice a day (dog walking).	No	No	No	No	No	(i) exercise (ii) dog walking	Yes	the path is ill defined by foot fall and	No	Yes. One/two about 50% of time	On foot	Yes	Bare earth	No	No		Yes
UE F1 4	Walking	July-99	22 years	Initially used every few weeks	No. Probably didn't use the path between 2014-2018	No	Yes, the gate is always unlocked	No	No	Mainly dog walking, and to gain access to Burleigh Wood	Yes	Average width I assume to be approx 1	No	Yes. Regularly see	On foot	Yes	Grass and soil/mud	No	No		Yes
UE F1 5	Walking	July-99	22 years since living on Leconfield Road	Every 3-4 weeks initially with young children but since having dog 3 yrs ago	Yes, 2016-2017 - foot surgery/crutches. Non	No	Yes, unlocked gate easy to open	No	No	Dog walking, access to Burleigh woods. Not too busy & safe for dog	Yes	Approx 1 metre, one person in front of	No	Yes, regularly , othe	On foot	Yes	Grass, soil/mud	No	No		Yes
UE F1 6	Walking	Summer of 1982	40 years approx	Twice a week throughout the year	No	No	No	No	No	Dog walking	Yes	2 1/2 feet	No	Yes, Most times I have used	On foot	Yes, well worn	Grass, a little	No	No		No
UE F1 7	Walking	Summer of 1982	40 years approx	Nearly every day when walking with my young son and dogs	No	No	No	No	No	Walking with my son when he was young and then with my various dogs	Yes	Generally about 2-3 feet	No	Yes, probably about a third of the times I	On foot	Yes, quite well defined	Grass, probably	No	No		Yes

UE F1 8	Walking	August-00	20	3-4 times a week in spring/summer/autumn. 1-2 times a week in	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure, follow this route to my work at the University	Yes	1 to 1.5 metres. Wider in warmer months	No	Yes, probably about 50% of the time I use	On foot	Yes, for the 20 years I have lived	Grass/solid soil	No	No		Yes
UE F1 9	Walking	August-00	20	Once a week, perhaps twice when the Bluebells are out in Burleigh	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure, for the views, exercise, accessing Burleigh Wood	Yes	3-4 feet	No	Yes, most times I use the path	only on foot	Yes	compressed soil	No	No		Yes
UE F2 0	Walking	Jan-73	48	Once a month 3 times a week	No	No	Fences have been erected at eastern and	No	No	Pleasure, dog walking, view, sledging	Yes	1 metre 2ft	No	Yes. 6-7 each day. I can see people from my	on foot on foot	Yes	Grass/mud	More recently (last ten years) there has been an unlocked gate. Previously, there was a fence through	Farmer cut the grass occasi	None Photos attached	Yes
UE F2 1	Walking	Jun-99	22 years	More in the summer - roughly a couple of times a month	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure, going to school and visiting friends	Yes	1 metre - well trode	No	Yes, Everytime I use it pretty much	On foot	Yes - via well troden path	grass/mud track across field	No, accessed via a fence or gate unlocked	No		Yes possibly?
UE F2 3	Walking	May 1993 when we moved to Loughborough	27 years	couple of times a month. Everyday when the bluebells are out in the woods	No	No	No	No	No	Exercise, pleasure, walks with friends & family	Yes	1 metre - maybe a	No	Yes, in the summer + bluebe	On foot	Yes, well trodden path	Grass	Yes, unlocked gate at entrance of Leconfield Road. Used to be a metal gate I think	No		No
UE F2 4	Walking	1985 approx	35 years +	It varies. As a child (1980s/90s)	Yes. From 1999 to 2019 I lived in London	No	No	No	No	For walking my dog and other walks in general	Yes	Approx 1m	No	Yes, 1 or 2 other people approx once per	On foot	Yes	Grass	No	No		Yes
UE F2 5	Walking	1973	48 years	Children used it when	Yes, both working	No	Yes, unlocked gate at entrance to field	No	No	Pleasure/exercise	Yes	Variable-between 2-3ft	No	Yes-frequently	On foot	Yes	Grass/earth	Yes. Stile at top of field - entrance to wood	No		No
UE F2 6	Walking	1973	48 years	Frequently when we had a dog 2002-2007. Once or twice a week now	Yes	No	Yes, only the unlocked gate at the entrance	No	No	Pleasure	Yes		No	Yes - frequently	On foot	Yes	grass/mud/earth	Probably a stile at the top of the field to get into the wood	No		No

UE F2 7	Walking	1982-May	38 years	1983-1995 - once per week	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure, enjoy view, outdoor activities with children	Yes	Estimate one metre	No	Yes, 6 people per day seen on foot on	On foot	Yes	Grass/Mud	No, access through unlocked gate	No		Yes
UE F2 8	Walking	May-82	38 years	1983 to 1985 once a week, 1996 to 2010 once a month. 2011 to 2019	No	No	No	No	No	Childrens exercise, enjoy most of view	Yes	Roughly one metre	No	Yes, 6 per day	On foot	Yes	Grass	No, access to start of path through unlocked gate	No		Yes
UE F2 9	Walking	May-83	40 years	average of twice a week	Yes, when there were cattle in the field (possibly late 80's early	No never	No, occasionally gate too difficult to open	No	No	Pleasure of walking with & without dogs	Yes, regularly to walk my dog & to get to the	varies with the	No	Yes, varies from time to	Only ever on foot	Yes	grass in field, car track along	No, only the gate into the field & there was barbed wire up at the entrance to the wood for a while	Yes, the farmer (Richard		No
UE F3 0	Walking	May-83	40 years	Always two or three times a week Once a month	Yes, late 80's when cattle were grazing in field	No	Yes, gate at top of Leconfield Rd	No	No	Pleasure and dog walking	Yes	Two feet on average. Varies according	No	Yes, general walkers	On foot On foot	Yes	Grass in field, leaf litter in wood	No, gate into field at top of Leconfield Road. Fence + barbed wire into wood.	Yes. Field used to be mowed by Richard Smith		No
UE F3 1	Walking	Oct-01 1991	Twenty 30 years	Two or three times a week over the past year. Before	No No	No No	No No, gate at	No No	No No	Pleasure especially when bluebells are out in Burleigh Wood For pleasure exercise	Yes Yes	2-3 feet in places,	No No	Yes, most times especially dog walkers	On foot	Yes, very clearly	Mud or grass compacted earth	Yes, there is a gate at the Leconfield Road end No, only the unlocked	No No		Yes Yes
UE F3 3	Walking	Feb-94	27 years	Once a week currently. Earlier years with children 3 times week	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure, walking with children, walking parents dog	Yes	Entrance open, main path narrows	No	Yes, see two-three other people	On foot	Yes	Grass mud	No	No		No
UE F3 4	Walking	Feb-94	27 years	3 times per week	No	No	No	No	No	Pleasure - walking dog & children. Walking with relatives & friends. Teaching the children about nature.	Yes	Opening near gate is wide & open. Path	No	Yes, usually see at least two other	On foot	Yes	Soil & grass, muddy in winter	No	No		No
UE F3 5	Walking	1980's early 81	40 years	As weve always had dogs we have used this route almost daily.	No	No	No	No	No	Taking dogs for a walk and with the children to look at the Bluebells	Yes	1 to 2 metres	No	Yes frequently	walking	Yes	Mud/grass	No, not that I recall	No not that I recall	It is a beautiful and peaceful part of the area that has a very special set of memories	Yes

UE F3 6	Walking	May-88	33	At least monthly, usually more often	No, used it every year	No never	No, there is an unlocked gate at the entrance	No	No	Pleasure & access to Burleigh Wood, enjoy the uninterrupted view towards Loughborough	Yes	The paths are normal	No	Yes, very many times. There is a steady	Always on foot	Yes. Both tracks can clearly	Grassy/soil	No none other than the gate at Leconfield Rd	No		Yes
UE F3 7	Walking	1988 - May onwards	33 years	Probably once a month to access	No	No, prior to the steel field gate being installed, access was via a wooden gate	No, Steel field gate is a better access. Before the	No	No, Notices were put up on the	For pleasure, walking, to enjoy the views across Loughborough and beyond, dog walking occasionally.	Yes, I use the paths to enjoy the views, access to	The paths are fairly narrow	No	Yes, I regularly see people walking	On foot	Yes, two clearly defined paths	flattened earth, grass, rock	Yes, Back in 1988 the access to the field was a wooden gate fence - originally some cattle were	No, the old stile removed, new rail fence	On old O.S. maps there was a R.O.W. path from the old farm house by the	Yes
UE F3 8	Walking	Sep-03	17 years	Until the last 3 years or so I used the path twice a day, every day as I	No	No	No	No	No	For pleasure, walking dogs. We used hill-top to take in view over Loughborough	Yes, we use it less	1 metre 2-3 feet	No	Yes, about half of	On foot	Yes	Grass	No	No		Yes
UE F3 9 UE F4	Walking Walking	Jun-18 since September 2018	3 2 1/2 years	a minimum of 5 times per week	No No	No No	No, the gate is always	No No	No No	Walking for pleasure and exercise with a friend For pleasure - walking my dog	Yes Yes	on average 3 ft	No No	Yes, generally, one other party (1/2 people)	On foot	Yes Yes	mud/earth/grass/mud	No, start of walk through unlocked gate No, only one unlocked gate	No No		Yes Yes
UE F4 1	Walking and cycling	Apr-15	six	I would use it with the kids x3/4 times a week, more in summer walking	No	No	No, the gate is unlocked and is easily	No	Yes, June 2020? (during lockdown)	Pleasure, walk to uni, visit friends, short cut to Montague	Yes	Depending on	No	I would often see people on the path the same	Foot	Yes	Grass+mud	No, access via uncoked gate at top of Leconfield	No	Please see photos attached	Yes
UE F4 2	Walking	Around 2011 when we first bought our house	10	We walk there almost weekly however during lockdown we've walked there	No	No, in all our years of walking there we've never encountered	No, the gate at the top of Leconfield is always	No	No	To get to the woods & do roly polys down the hill. I also used it for running training	Yes	I couldn't say! Wide enough for 1	No	Yes, almost every time we	Walking	Yes	Grass	No	No		Yes
UE F4 3	Walking and cycling	Around 2011 when we first bought our house	10	Weekly - evenings & weekend my late father also used it as he	No	No, this has never happened	No, the gate to get in is always open	No	No	To get to the woods, but we have also spread my fathers	Yes	Probably about 1 meter ~ 1m	No	Yes, every time we walk	walking on foot	Yes	Grass/soil/mud	No	No	As per a previous answer on the basis we have spread my fathers ashes	Yes
UE F4 4 UE F4	Walking Walking	Nov-18 Nov-18	3 1/2 3 1/2	2 x a day sometimes more 2 x every day	No No	No No	No No	No No	No No	Walk to + from work/ walk dog Walking dog/for fun/for exercise/ for health	Yes Yes	0.5m - 1m	No No	Yes, 2-3 groups/daily every day 2-3 groups	on foot	Yes Yes	mud	Yes, unlocked gate on Leconfield Yes unlocked gate on Leconfield	No No		Yes Yes

UE F4 6	Walking	Feb 2019 - we moved to Leconfield 31st Jan 2019	2 years 3 months	3-4 times a week - we walk the dog in the field	No	No	No	No	No	Mainly walking the dog as a family	Yes	Approx 2 feet wide	No	Yes, we see people every day as can see	Only seen people walking	Yes	It's a mud/sand path - similar	Yes, there is a gate to the entrance of the field/footpath at the top of Leconfield Road. It	No		Yes
UE F4 7	Walking	Feb 2019 when we moved here, this being a selling point	2 years 3 months	Most days 1-2 times mainly to walk	No	No	No	No	No	Dog walking, exploring, jogging, nature	Yes	Between 1-2 metres depending on point	No	Yes, Very often as they walk past our living	Foot	Yes, it is well used	soil/grass	No, gate has been unlocked for many years. I also	No		Yes
UE F4 8	Walking	Feb-20	1 year. Discovered it during lockdown	every 2 weeks	No, not since discovering it	No	No, there is an unlocked gate	No	No	we use it for walks, running and when it snows the hill is good for sledging	Yes for walks and runs	The footpath is about	No	Yes a couple of people every	on foot	Yes there is a clear path	The path is either grass	Yes there is an unlocked gate at start of the route	No. the field is mowed every once in a while		Yes
UE F4 9	Walking	Jun-19	Two	Every other day 3-4 times a month	No	No	No	No	No	We use the path and Burleigh Wood to walk our dog Exercise	Yes	2 to 3 feet in most areas	No	Yes, I can't recall not seeing	Always on foot	Yes	Mostly grass, turning to mud after	Yes, there is an unlocked gate at the beginning	No		No
UE F5 0	Walking	May-14 Jun-19	6 2 (since moving here), one of	3 or 4 times a week	No	No	No, not sure if unlocked gate counts	No	No	To walk the dog around the pathways and into Burleigh wood	Yes Yes	1 meter on average 2 to 3	No	Yes, one/two people, half the time	Foot on foot	Yes	Grass/Earth Mostly grass worn	No Yes, There is an unlocked gate at the beginning	No		No
UE F5 2	Walking	Apr-15	six years	Mostly in the spring and summer	No	No	Yes, there is a fence blocking access to Burleigh	No	No	Pleasure, exercise, feeling better	Yes	One foot?	No	Yes	on foot	Yes	grass	No	No		No
UE F5 3	Walking	Apr-18	3 years	I use it at least 3 days a week to go to work	No, with lockdown the usage reduced to 1-2	No	No, there is a gate at the	No	No	My most common use is to go to work	Yes	The route transitions from several	No	Yes, I see people walking to the footpath	Always on foot	Yes	Mostly grass	There is only an unlocked gate at the top of Leconfield Road	No		Yes
UE F5 4	Walking	Apr-18	3 years	Once a week in spring/summer/autumn	No	No	No, there is a gate at the Leconfield entrance	No, I have never asked	No	For pleasure	Yes	I think it is approximately 1m wide	No	Yes, I live at the top of Leconfield Road and	On foot	Yes	Grass and mud	There is an unlocked gate at the top of Leconfield Road	No		Yes

UE F5 5	Walking	Jun-20	1 year 11 months	5 times per week mainly on mon-fri daily	No	No	Yes, there is an unlock ed	No	No	Pleasure	Yes	I metr e but is does	No	Yes, most days when I use the path	foot	Yes	mud	Yes, unlocked gate on Leconfield Road	No		Yes
---------------	---------	--------	------------------------	--	----	----	--	----	----	----------	-----	----------------------------------	----	---	------	-----	-----	--	----	--	-----

This page is intentionally left blank